The Educational Leadership, College and University Cohort Program is a distance delivery, cohort based Ph.D. program focused on the development of leaders at four year colleges and universities. Its goal is to produce educational leaders and scholar practitioners that contribute to the knowledge and application of knowledge in a College and University setting. The program is a 60-hour, post masters program that includes 30 hours of leadership and administrative course content and 30 hours of research credits, plus comprehensive exams and a dissertation.

The delivery of the program is a blended format. Students are required to travel to Fort Collins for an 8-9 day extended week in July each year. Two additional days in January prior to the beginning of the spring semester, are also required. The program is designed to be completed in four to five years, while the student remains employed full-time at an institution of higher education.

Master's Degree and/or Principal Licensure

Master's Option #2B

Colorado State University, in partnership with local school districts, offers the opportunity to obtain a principal's license and/or a Master's degree on site. The setting for this cohort is hosted by one of the local districts and most courses are held at their site. If you begin the program in Summer 2010, you can complete the Master's degree and the requirements for Principal Licensure by the following summer. If you already have a Master's degree and are interested in Principal Licensure only, you may select the "non-degree" application. Applicants for Principal Licensure must also have a minimum of three years teaching experience in order to apply for the license.
